Mat Phillips has sold his interest in the "Red Front" saloon to his partner

Bob Bond.

The poetry of babyhood is turned into the blindest kind of prose when one has to walk the floor all night to the ceaseless wailing of a colic-suffering infant. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup prevents all such scenes and troubles by its unfailing influence.

Mr. Jarrett has decided to remain in the Conway building permanently.

A glass front has been put in and the second story will be occupied by him as a residence.

The free entertainment given

Tuesday night, by one of Forepaugh's agents, was witnessed by between 500 and 1,000 persons, and was a good entertainment.

Washington, D. C. correspondent

Lincoln News: Mrs. R. C. Rymer and children are residing on the Potomac where Mr. Rymer will join them on 21st, for a couple of weeks of pure air.

Will Fitzpatrick, while loading marble at the H. & St. Joe depot, Monday, laid his coat and vest down, and when he picked them up again, he was minus a gold watch.

Mr. Thomas Swain went to Wellington, Kansas, last week, where he and his brother-in-law, Mr. Andrews, will engage in the harness and saddlery business.

Dr. M. H. Wilcox left Monday, for a six weeks' visit to Minnesota. Dr. Geo. Ambrose, of Avalon, and Dr. Sam Harris, of this city, will run the office during his absence.

If you don't think Jim Houx, of Bedford, will buy your grain try him and you bet he will buy it or make some sharp man pay more for it than it is worth and "don't you forget it." 502

The democrats of this city met at the court room Monday night, and selected the following permanent officers of the club: President, J. L. Buford;

Vice-presidents, May Shotton and Henry Miller; Secretary, Al. Bryan; assistant secretaries, Arthur Henderson and

Wm. Fitzpatrick. Messrs. L. T. Collier and J. Scott Myers made short speeches.

Charley Martin was on his way to the Springfield place, Friday, in a buggy with a lady, when one of the horse-es became entangled in the harness and he and the lady got out, when the horses sprung forward getting away from Charley and smashing up the buggy. He got another rig from a friend who happened to be near by and went on to the picnic.

Lincoln News: Mr. Alexander

Ashbrook died at the Kelly House, on Sunday night, July 20th, 1884. Our readers will remember that Mr. Ash-brook undertook to kill himself some weeks since by shooting himself through the body and swallowing broken glass while staying at Mr. Anderson's. He was recently brought to the city and after severe suffering passed away.

On Monday of last week, the Da-videss county Democrats nominated

Joshua Alexander for representative;

W. D. Hamilton for prosecuting attorney; W. M. Givens for treasurer; Geo.

P. Allen for surveyor; John P. Smith for public administrator; and Dr.

Stroup for coroner. The convention took place at the residence of Geo. F. Martin, of Jackson township, and Maj. Samuel

P. Cox, of Union township, and the question of who should be the candidate was ordered to be settled by a primary election, to be held August 9th.

During the storm last Sunday evening, lightning struck the old building just opposite Mr. Wm. Summerville's store, near the Hannibal depot, but did not set the building on fire. Mr. Summerville, who was standing in front of his store, was severely shocked; his wife who was at home just west of the house struck, received so violent a shock that she fell from the chair in which she had been sitting. Other parties in that vicinity were more or less shocked. On the same evening a daughter of Mr. D. F.

Chapin, living in the north part of the city, was also pretty severely shocked by lightning. She was standing on the porch of her father's residence at the time.
